

Governor Brewer Signs Most Pro-Life Legislation in Arizona History

Phoenix, AZ - July 14, 2009 - Arizona Governor Jan Brewer made history late Monday after signing into law the most pro-life legislation ever passed in the state.

The laws take effect on October 12th, following the 90-day constitutional grace period.

HB2400 "Partial Birth Abortion Ban" -- Bans the gruesome practice of killing a baby while he/she is only partially delivered.

Primary Sponsor: Rep. Nancy Barto

HB2564 "Abortion Consent Act" -- Establishes informed consent rights of a woman considering an abortion, requires notarized parental notification for minors to obtain a legal abortion, and protects rights of conscience for healthcare professionals not participating in abortion.

Primary Sponsor: Rep. Nancy Barto

SB1175 "Prohibition of abortions performed by non-physicians" -- Bans anyone who is not a licensed physician from performing abortions.

Primary Sponsor: Rep. Nancy Barto

HB2616 "Jesse's Law, Part 2" -- Protects a patient while any legal issues are being resolved in lieu of an Advanced Medical Directive (Click for AMD/Will to Live info).

Primary Sponsor: Rep. Rick Murphy

Be sure to voice your appreciation for Governor Brewer and the bills' sponsors!

Arizona Right to Life

602-285-0063

A non-sectarian, non-partisan, non-profit, 501(c)4 organization, Arizona Right to Life is committed to articulating and protecting the right to life of all human beings, born and unborn. This is accomplished by educating people on the value of every human life and by promoting and supporting pro-life legislation, public policy and elected officials. Arizona Right to Life is the oldest, largest and strongest pro-life organization in the State of Arizona.

